The pool is built into a cliffside, offering a panoramic view of a lush green valley, a small town, and a turquoise ocean under a clear blue sky. # OUR VISION

MEET THE OWNERS

Jennifer & Konrad left their corporate lives to embark on a lifelong adventure. Plans were made that when the right opportunity came they would take their entrepreneurial skills on the road and travel the world. They became white collar vagabonds. Their travels took them from Ecuador to Croatia to the south of France and many other destinations. When they decided to cut the cord and sell their home in Atlanta they packed up their car and drove towards the Mexican border. They continued for over 4,000 miles through Central America and ended up in Uvita de Osa where over a fateful weekend a decision was made to buy a property because it just felt right.

This property would become Vista Celestial. Vista Celestial is a reflection of their travel experiences including organic mixed drinks, culinary fusions, lounge designs, to the wood for the furniture that was sourced from their friend's reforestation farm. The travel stories are endless and your hosts would love to exchange experiences with you over a cocktail or two.

TESTIMONIALS

“Vista Celestial is such an exceptional resort. The attention to detail, from the staff knowing your name, to the organic fruit and vegetable garden where the majority of your meals came from — everything was fabulous. The food, the drinks, and the view. Wow!! Very romantic and very private. I highly recommend Vista Celestial.”

“I’ve traveled to Costa Rica several times, and always had great experiences, but that being said, my Vista Celestial experience blew away the others. During our stay we picked fruits and veggies from the organic gardens on site, hiked, checked out hidden waterfalls, kayaked and boated through mangroves, zip lined, and had an overall blast. I want to go back asap. I only left a few days ago and I already miss it.”
